

Nexus welcomed

Iain MacIntyre

The New Zealand Shippers' Council has endorsed, Nexus Logistics, the new joint venture collaborative container logistics and distribution services network introduced by Ports of Auckland and Netlogix.

Shippers' Council executive officer Peter Morris this week told the *Shipping Gazette*TM: "The council believes that collaboration across the supply chain is smart, sustainable and cost effective. Accordingly, the council welcomes the announcement from Ports of Auckland and Netlogix that they have collaborated in a joint venture to remove waste and add efficiency to the supply chain."
